CHISHOLM
of CROMLIX

EDMUND CHISHOLM, 1ST OF CROMLIX, whom Viscount Strathallan states to have been “a sone of the Laird of Cheesholmes house in Teviotdaile, descended from the Cheesholmes of Tindaile in England.” He was a Burgess of Edinburgh by 1 December 1482 when he witnessed a charter by Mr. James Hunter, rector of Cranston, and also as a Burgess of that city, he witnessed a charter by Mariote Nessoun of Drumcork for the lands of Drumcork to Malcolm Drummond, son and heir of the late James Drummond, indweller in Dunblane, at Dunblane on 20 June 1498.

He “married first Margaret Sinclare, a widdow, and daughter of the house of Dryden” by whom had issue. He m. secondly, to Janet Drummond, whom Strathallan refers to as “daughter to James Drummond of Coldoch, brother to John Lord Drummond.” She survived him and is styled his relict in an indenture between Sir John Stirling of Keir and John Kinross of Kippenross on 15 March 1518. By these two wives he was father of:

1. James Chisholm, was a son by his father’s first marriage. He was appointed chaplain to King James III. and was afterwards promoted to the Bishopric of Dunblane by Pope Innocent VIII. He was one of that King’s intimate friends and escaped the tragic fate of his counterparts at the bridge of Lauder, in 1482. He d. in 1533 and was father of two natural sons,

1a} Malcolm Chisholm, who was father of,
1b} Matthew Chisholm, who was father of,
1c} Sir John Chisholm, was a natural son and in favour of whom a precept for a legitimation passed the Privy Seal on 26 October 1519. He was appointed Archdeacon of Dunblane in 1542 and d. before 1 February 1553/54, having had issue;

1 C2/11/21.
2 C2/13/614. His being designed Burgess of Edinburgh and a witness to a charter executed at Dunblane is good evidence of his being identical to Edmund Chisholm founder of this stirpes.
3 Keir Papers. No. 102.
4 RPS Vol. I. No. 3052.
1d} James Chisholm, in favour of whom a precept for letters of legitimation passed the Privy Seal on 1 February 1553/54.⁵
1a} John Chisholm, in favour of whom a precept for letters of legitimation passed the Privy Seal on 1 Februart 1553/54.⁶

2. Thomas Chisholm of Glassingal, was a son by his father’s first marriage and obtained the lands of Glassingal and the Mill of Dundurn. He d. in 1545, following which his nephew, James Chisholm of Cromlix, was infeft in the lands of Mill of Dundurn on 16 May 1552, as male heir to him, with the lands being then said to have been in nonentry for a period of seven years.⁷ He was father of,
2a} Janet Chisholm, m. by 13 October 1534, to John Drummond, ⁴th of Pitkellony, when they had a conjunct charter under the Great Seal for Pitkellony mill.⁸ They had issue.
2a} Mariote Chisholm, m. firstly, John Philipson of Dundurn, and secondly, Duncan Patrickson, 2nd of Kingarth, with whom she is included in a confirmation under the Great Seal for the half-lands of Kingarth on 12 May 1542. She had issue by both husbands.

3. Sir James Chisholm, 2nd of Cromlix, (see below).

4. William Chisholm, succeeded his half-brother, James, in the Bishopric of Dunblane and was consecrated at Stirling by Gavin Dunbar, Archbishop of Glasgow, on 14 April 1527. He had a gift of the ward of his grandson Alexander Drummond, younger of Meggar, under the Privy Seal on 10 December 1533 and d. in 1564. By his mistress Jean, daughter of William Graham, Earl of Montrose, he was father of several natural children,
4a} James Chisholm of Lochfield, to whom the fee of 12 bovats of lands at Ochtertyre was assigned by charter of 16 June 1543.⁹ He is styled brother to Helen Chisholm, natural daughter of William, Bishop of Dunblane, in a charter to her and John Buchanan, fiar of that Ilk, her husband, of his lands of Lochfield dated 10 September 1552.¹⁰
4a} Thomas Chisholm, who was included with his father in a precept under the Privy Seal for a confirmation tothem of he lands of Culquoigs, in the barony of Keir, on 22 May 1549.¹¹

⁵ PS1/26/68.
⁶ PS1/26/68.
⁸ C2/25/377.
⁹ C2/30/4.
¹⁰ C2/32/302.
¹¹ PS1/24/27.
4a} William Chisholm, in favour of whom a precept for letters of legitimation passed the Privy Seal on 8 June 1550.12

4a} Janet Chisholm, m. Sir James Stirling, 4th of Keir, (c/m 5 March 1542.13 He was widow of Janet, only daughter and heir of Andrew Stirling of Cadder and d. on 3 February 1588), and had issue.

4a} Elizabeth Chisholm, m. James Drummond, 2nd of Meggar, (he survived her and m. secondly, to Margaret Murray), and had issue.

4a} Margaret Chisholm, who was a substitute heir to her sister Elizabeth in a grant to them by their father for the lands of Bordland of Menteith for which a precept for a charter of confirmation passed the Privy Seal on 30 April 1551.14

4a} Helen Chisholm, m. firstly Archibald Edmonstone, 5th of Duntreath, by whom she had no apparent issue, and secondly, to John Buchanan of that Ilk, (he was widow of Elizabeth, daughter of Alexander, 5th Lord Livingston, whom he had m. in 1543, and by whom he had issue), who granted her, as his future wife, the liferent of his lands of Strathyre on 26 August 1552, and in which she is styled natural daughter of William, Bishop of Dunblane.15

5. Janet Chisholm, m. firstly by 4 March 1510, to Sir Alexander Napier of Merchistoun, (he was k. at the battle of Flodden in September of 1513), when a precept passed the Privy Seal for a confirmation to them of the lands of Edinbelly, Ballacarn and Ballatis on his father’s resignation,16 and by whom she had issue.17 She m. secondly, to Sir Ninian Seaton, 3rd of Touch and Tulliebody, although this marriage was annulled on 13 May 1535 as she had previously had children by a John Buchanan to whom Ninian was related within the forbidden degrees.18 She had m. thirdly, by 20 December 1538, to Sir James Towers of Innerleith.

6. Beatrix Chisholm, m. firstly, to James Murray of Strowan, and secondly, to Henry Sinclair, son of Edward Sinclair, 1st of Galivmor, with whom she had a tack of tiend sheaves of the lands of Easter

12 PS1/23/95.
13 Keir muniments No. 160.
14 PS1/26/70.
17 Ex. Rolls. Vol. XVIII. PP. 417-418. She is styled grandmother to Archibald Napier of Edinbellie in a precept of Sasine of 5 November 1547.
18 Liber Officialis St. Andrews. No. 85.
Feddalls on 1 May 1533. She had a grant of the lands of Ardoch from her brother William, Bishop of Dunblane, to herself and her second husband and left issue by both husbands. By her second she was mother of,

6a) Marion Sinclair of Ardoch, who succeeded to the lands of Ardoch and Drumlacok for which she had from her cousin William Chisholm, Bishop of Dunblane, on 5 February 1543. She m. William Stirling, second son of Sir John Stirling of Keir, and had issue, (see Stirling of Ardoch).

7. Helen Chisholm, m. firstly, to James Oliphant of Newton and Dalgetie, with whom she is mentioned in a charter of the lands of Barclayshaugh, granted in their favour dated 18 January 1523/24. She had m. secondly, by 10 May 1527, to Robert Mercer of Newton, when they had a conjunct charter for the half of the barony of Ochtertyre, in the sheriffdom of Forfar.

SIR JAMES CHISHOLM, 2ND OF CROMLIX, is styled brother to Sir James Chisholm, Bishop of Dunblane, when he was entered tenant of the Crown lands of Kirkandres and Terrnaneane in 1517 and acquired the lands of Dundurn from Finlay Philipson, son and heir of the deceased John Philipson, by charter of 27 June 1542.

He m. by 30 July 1531, to Catherine, sister of John Graham, 3rd Earl of Montrose, (she survived him and m. secondly, to Thomas Charteris of Kinfauns, who was ksp in 1552. Also surviving that husband, she m. thirdly, to Archibald Ogilvy of Lawton, and d. on 25 December 1583), when they had conjunct charter from Alison Charteris, Lady Powrie, for the lands of Charteris-lands. They had another charter for the lands of Wester Spittalton of Cessintully on 28 February 1535 and he had d. after that date and before May of 1552. He was father of,

1. Sir James Chisholm, 3rd of Cromlix, (see below).

19 GD24/3/33/1.
20 C2/21/158.
21 C2/21/60.
23 C2/28/443.
24 CS7/3/129. Katherine Graham was executor to her husband Thomas Charteris of Kinfauns, for herself and for Janet Chisholm, her daughter of her first marriage, who was then married to John Charteris of Kinfauns, brother and heir of the said Thomas, in a contract against Janet Stewart, sometime spouse of Thomas.
25 C2/29/144.
26 C2/28/76.
2. William Chisholm, who was consecrated Bishop of Dunblane and of which office he was deprived for his adherance to the Catholic Faith. Following this the Dean Chapter by Royal Mandate dated 3 July, 1573, were ordered to elect a Bishop on account of “the See being vacant by the conviction in Parliament and forfeiture for treason of Bishop William.” At the Reformation in 1560 he travelled to France with family members where he was consecrated Bishop of Vason and afterwards became a Friar of the Carthusian Order. He d. in Rome.

3. Alexander Chisholm, was appointed parson of Comrie and m. Janet, daughter of Walter Buchannan, natural son of Robert Buchannan of Leny. He was witness to a charter by his kinsman James Chisholm, Archdeacon of Dunblane, granting certain lands to their elder brother Sir James Chisholm of Cromlix, on 1 June 1582 and was father of,

3a} Walter Chisholm, was infeft by his mother, Janet Buchanan, in an anualrent of £20 to be uplifted from the mill of Strathyre on 24 May 1621\(^{27}\) and was appointed Bailie of Dunblane. He m. Anna, daughter of Maurice Drummond, and Tutor of Bordland, and was father of,

3b} James Chisholm, d. young.

3b} Alexander Chisholm, succeeded his father as Bailie of Dunblane and m. at Edinburgh, on 22 January 1667, to Sarah, daughter of Francis Bramstone, Sovereign of Belfast.\(^{28}\) He was father of,

3c} Helen Chisholm,

3c} Elizabeth Chisholm, bap. at Dunblane, on 29 January 1668.

3b} Walter Chisholm, was apprenticed to James Fortoun, Skipper in Leith, on 10 October 1638\(^{29}\) and is said by Viscount Strathallan, to have also been killed during the civil war.

3b} Henry Chisholm, was apprenticed to John Dounny, Skipper in Leith, on 8 February 1643\(^{30}\) and was killed during the civil war. Of he and his brother, Walter, Viscount Strathallan states that they were both killed in the King’s service, in our late unhappie warr.

3b} Alexander Chisholm, b. in 1633 and graduated Master of Arts from St. Andrews University on 13 May 1653. He was ordained Minister at Newbattle on 29 November

\(^{27}\) GD220/1/D/6/3/9-11.
\(^{28}\) OPR – Edinburgh.
\(^{29}\) SRS Register of Edinburgh Apprentices.
\(^{30}\) SRS Register of Edinburgh Apprentices.
1663 and afterwards transferred to Corstorphine. He m. Margaret, daughter of Oliver Coul, Minister at Inveresk, (she d. on 23 April 1680), and d. in 1670 having had issue, 3c\} James Chisholm, bap. at Corstorphine, on 5 March 1669.

3c\} Jean Chisholm, bap. at Corstorphine, on 8 March 1668.

3b\} Jean Chisholm, m. her cousin James Sinclair, nephew of Henry Sinclair of Glassingal, and had issue.

3b\} Elizabeth Chisholm, m. at Edinburgh, on 17 December 1668, to Mr. James Scrimgeour, Minister at Currie,\(^{31}\) third son of John Scrimgeour of Kirkton, (he d. in 1699 aged about 56 years).

3a\} Alexander Chisholm, was admitted Minister of Muthill in 1576 and m. a daughter of Archibald Ogilvy of Lawton. He was father of,

3b\} Walter Chisholm,

3a\} Malcolm Chisholm, m. Margaret Cornwall with whom he had a Tack of the half lands of Braco on 26 April 1550\(^{32}\) and on 12 May 1566, a precept for a legitimation in his favour passed the Privy Seal.\(^{33}\)

3a\} Jean Chisholm, m. John Sinclair, 2nd of Ulbster, (he survived her and m. secondly, to Katherine, daughter of Sir Robert Stewart, 1st Earl of Orkney), and had issue.

3a\} Helen Chisholm, m. Henry Sinclair, 3rd of Glassingall, and had no issue.

3a\} Isabella Chisholm, m. firstly, Alexander Craig of Rosecraig, with whom she had a conjunct charter for the lands of Meyane, with the fishing thereof, on 12 May 1609.\(^{34}\) She survived that husband and m. secondly Alexander Douglas, Provost and Sheriff of Banff, by whom she had issue.

4. Janet Chisholm, m. by 20 March 1556, to John Charteris of Kinfauns,\(^{35}\) and had a charter from her brother William, Bishop of Dunblane, for the lands of Corskaplie on 23 May 1567. They had issue.

5. Beatrice Chisholm, m. firstly, Thomas Ogilvy, second son of James, 4th Lord Ogilvy of Airlie, (he was then separated but not divorced from Janet, daughter of Thomas, 3rd Lord Lovat, who was widow of John Crichton, 4th of Ruthven), although this was annulled in 1574 due to her husband not being

\(^{31}\) OPR – Edinburgh.
\(^{32}\) GD220/1/A/4/3/6.
\(^{33}\) RPS Vol. V. Pt. II. No. 2817.
\(^{34}\) C2/45/353.
\(^{35}\) CS7/13/129.
divorced from his first wife. She m. secondly, John Stirling, 4th of Lettyr, (he was widow of Elizabeth, daughter of George Elphinstone of Blytheswood).

Sir James Chisholm, 3rd of Cromlix, succeeded his father and had Sasine for the lands of Glassingal and Mill of Dundurn on 14 May 1552 as heir male to Thomas Chisholm of Glassingal.\(^{36}\) He m. in 1548/49 to Jean, daughter of Sir John Drummond, 2nd of Innerpeffray, with whom he had a charter from her father for the barony of Innerpeffrey on 10 February 1558,\(^{37}\) which they disposed to David, Lord Drummond, by contract of 22 March 1562.\(^{38}\) He conveyed the lands of Cromlix and Buttergask to his eldest son James on 11 September 1577, and with his wife, Jean Drummond, he disposed their lands of Kinlochdow to their son-in-law, James Drummond of Innerpeffrey, and their daughter, Janet, by Instrument of 24 November 1582.\(^{39}\) He was father of:

1. Sir James Chisholm, 4th of Cromlix, (see below).
2. William Chisholm, b. on 11 March 1551 and succeeded his uncle as Bishop of Vaison, in France. He d. in 1621.
3. Sir John Chisholm, b. at Dunblane, in August 1557 and had a commission under the Privy Seal of the office of Clerk of the Commissariat of Dunblane for life on 24 August 1584.\(^{40}\) He travelled to France with his brother William where he is said to have settled and married, and had issue.
4. Thomas Chisholm, portioner of Buttergask, b. in August of 1559 and had a pension of £40 yearly from the tiend silver of the parsonages and vicarages of Strowan and Tulliechettill on 24 January 1583/84.\(^{41}\) He is styled lawful son to James Chisholm of Cromlix when he consented to the granting of the tiends of the lands of Cowgask by James Drummond, Commendator of Inchaffray, to James, Master of Graham, on 12 April 1585, and was father of;
   4a} Jean Chisholm, m. firstly, Henry Oliphant, 3rd of Kilmarone, *(c/m 1 March 1617.\(^{42}\) He d. on 24 January 1626\(^{43}\) ), and had issue; and secondly, to Henry Douglas.

---

\(^{36}\) GD160/27/2.
\(^{37}\) C2/31/501.
\(^{38}\) GD160/18/8.
\(^{39}\) GD112/2/141/1/11.
\(^{40}\) RPS Vol. VIII. No. 2362.
\(^{41}\) RPS Vol. VIII. No. 1775.
\(^{42}\) RD1/329/37.
\(^{43}\) St. Andrews Tests.
5. Jean Chisholm, b. on 13 July 1555 and m. James Drummond, 1st Lord Madderty, (he d. in September of 1623). She d. in November of 1589 and had issue.

6. Helen Chisholm, b. at Dunblane, in April of 1562 and m. Henry Lindsay or Charteris of Kinfauns, afterwards 13th Earl of Crawford, (he survived her and m. secondly, at Clackmannan, on 2 December 1599, to Elizabeth, daughter of Sir James Schaw of Sauchie).

7. Anna Chisholm, b. on 4 May 1568 and m. firstly, by 30 January 1597, to John Napier of Merchistoun, (he was widow of Elizabeth, daughter of Sir James Stirling, of Keir, and d. on 3 April 1617), when they had a grant of lands from Ludovick Stewart, Duke of Lennox, and secondly, by 30 January 1637, to William Cunningham of Craigends.

8. Margaret Chisholm, b. in 1567 and m. Sir George Muschet of Burnbank. She d. in December of 1629 having had issue.

Sir James Chisholm, 4th of Cromlix, b. on 10 September 1550 and had a charter from his father, with consent of Andrew, Bishop of Dunblane, for the lands of Cromlix and Buttergask on 11 September 1577. He was put to the horn in 1593 for refusing to conform to the reformed faith and for still being an active Papist but afterwards had a remission from James VI. only after accepting the Act of Abolition.

He m. Agnes, only daughter of David Bethune, 5th of Creich, (c/m 17 September 1580. She survived him m. secondly, to Sir David Herring of Glasclune and Lethendy, who was widow of Euphemia, daughter of John Spense of Condie), and d. in 1597 having had issue,

1. Sir James Chisholm, 5th of Cromlix, (see below).

2. Margaret Chisholm, m. firstly, to John Trail, eldest son and heir of John Trail of Blebo, from who she had a charter for the lands of Overmagask on 19 August 1606, and surviving him, she m. secondly, by March of 1631, to Alexander Stewart, chamberlain of the bishopric and Priory of St. Andrews.

---

44 Edinburgh Tests.
45 OPR – Clackmannan.
46 C2/41/112.
47 Dunblane Tests.
48 RMS 1514-1546. No. 2912.
49 RD1/19/12.
50 GD7/2/420.
51 GD7/1/38.
3. Jean Chisholm, \textit{m.} by 17 January 1617, to Colin Campbell, 2\textsuperscript{nd} of Ardbech, when an inhibition was raised by Sir James Chisholm of Cromlix, her brother, against her husband for the fulfillment of a Bond. They had issue.

SIR JAMES CHISHOLM, 5\textsuperscript{TH} OF CROMLIX, who was appointed one of the King’s masters of household for like on 21 June 1581.\textsuperscript{52} He succeeded his father and had Sasine for the lands of Cromlix on 15 August 1599, which had lapsed and been in the King’s hands for two years.\textsuperscript{53} He had a charter from James Sandilands, Lord Torphicen, for the Temple lands of ConCraig comprising the lands of Lintibbert, Fintallich, Drumgowrok, Drumsauchie, Templihill, ConCraig with the Mill, on 13 and 24 June 1604,\textsuperscript{54} and had a charter from James Kinross, fiar of Kippenross, for those of Kippenross, to himself and Helen Stirling, his wife, and James Chisholm, his eldest son and heir and his heirs, which failing, to John Chisholm, his second son and his heirs, on 1 April 1629.\textsuperscript{55}

He \textit{m.} Helen, daughter of Mr. William Stirling, Parson of Aberfoyle, brother of Henry Stirling, 2\textsuperscript{nd} of Ardoch, (she had previously \textit{m.} in February of 1610, to Mr. Andrew Allan, Minister of Aberfoyle, but that marriage was annulled on account of her adultery), and \textit{d.} between November of 1633 and January of 1638. He was father of:

1. JAMES CHISHOLM, 6\textsuperscript{TH} OF CROMLIX, who is styled son and heir to his father in a charter in favour of James Pearson, Dean of Dunblane, for the lands of Kippenross on 9 November 1633. He \textit{m.} Jean, daughter of Ludovick Houston of that Ilk, (\textit{c/m} 4 January 1638\textsuperscript{56}), and \textit{d.} by 5 August 1641 having been “\textit{made Captain of a foot company in my Lord Drummond’s regiment}” and had served with them up until his death at Kelso, of a sickness he had contracted at Newcastle. He was father of,

1a} LUDOVIC CHISHOLM OF CROMLIX, who succeeded his father on his death and being an infant, a petition was presented to the estates on his behalf on 5 August 1641 requesting that his grandfather, Ludovic Houston of that Ilk, be appointed his Tutor. It runs: “\textit{the late James Chisholm, my father, being employed in the public service, was made captain of a foot company in my Lord Drummond’s regiment and continued captain therein until his decease, likewise my said late father being in the said service at Newcastle contracted sickness and...}”

\textsuperscript{52} RPS Vol. VIII. No. 354.
\textsuperscript{53} Ex. Rolls. Vol. XXIII. P. 500.
\textsuperscript{54} C2/46/96.
\textsuperscript{55} RMS 1620-1633. No. 1390.
\textsuperscript{56} RS50/8/f.455r
died at Kelso, and therefore I should have the benefit of the act conferred on me to have my ward and marriage granted to my benefit, freely without composition. And because Sir Ludovic Houston of that Ilk, my grandfather, is one of my nearest friends and is tutor testamentar nominated to me by my said late father for ruling of my estate and affairs during my pupillarity, and so is one most confident in whose name my said gift of ward and marriage may be granted to my benefit.\(^{57}\) He apparently died before 23 September of that same year and he was certainly dead by 30 April 1642 when his uncle, John Chisholm, had himself served heir to the Cromlix estate.

2. John Chisholm, 7\(^{th}\) of Cromlix, (see below).

3. Helen Chisholm, who, with her sister Jean, had an annuity of four chalders of victual from the lands of Forr from her father on 6 March 1617. She m. David Drummond, 2\(^{nd}\) of Innermay, (c/m 23 January 1637\(^{58}\)), and had issue.

4. Jean Chisholm, m. John Graham, 3\(^{rd}\) of Orchill, (he d. in November of 1658\(^{59}\)), and had issu.

5. Margaret Chisholm, m. John Drummond, 6\(^{th}\) of Belliclone, (c/m 12 July 1644\(^{60}\)).

6. Anna Chisholm, m. Lieutenant Harlow, and had issue.\(^{61}\)

Sir John Chisholm, 7\(^{th}\) of Cromlix, who successfully petitioned the King and Estates on 23 September 1641 to have his own ward and marriage assigned to him as a consequence of his brother James’s death in public service.\(^{62}\) He succeeded his nephew, Ludovic Chisholm, on his death in infancy and was served heir to his father and his brother, James, on 30 April 1642.\(^{63}\) He was active with the Marquis of Montrose during the civil war and was taken prisoner and released on 1 March 1645 under the pain of £10,000 Scots with John, Earl of Perth, being cautioner for his obedience.\(^{64}\) He had broken the terms of this by 3 February 1647 when the Estates agreed to accept 6,000 merks “in full satisfaction of his fine and of the £10,000 iuncurred by his breaking of the act of caution found for his good

---

\(^{57}\) NRS PA6/4/ 5\(^{th}\) August 1641.

\(^{58}\) RS50/8/f.251r.

\(^{59}\) Dunblane Tests.

\(^{60}\) RS50/10/f.452r

\(^{61}\) They had a daughter Helen whom Anna petitioned the Session of Dunblane to have baptised on 22 January 1654, and in which she styles herself a lawful daughter of the then deceased James Chisholm of Cromlix.

\(^{62}\) NRS PA/23\(^{rd}\) September 1641.

\(^{63}\) C22/16/262 & C22/16/267.

\(^{64}\) NRS PA/23/f.220r-220v.
behaviour in regard of his known great burdens and of the present hard condition of his estate."\textsuperscript{65} He disposed his estate to Lieutenant General William Drummond after 31 July 1668\textsuperscript{66} and before 11 March 1670.\textsuperscript{67}

He m. firstly, Jean, daughter of William Graham, 7th Earl of Airth, to whom, in her virginity, he granted a liferent for the lands of Buttergask on 14 October 1643, in which she is styled daughter of William, Earl of Airth.\textsuperscript{68} He m. secondly, at Edinburgh, on 8 August 1661, to Margaret, daughter of William Cunningham, 8th Earl of Glencairn,\textsuperscript{69} (she was widow of David Bethune, 8th of Creich, who had \textit{dsp} on 4 March 1660\textsuperscript{70}), and was father of,

\textbf{WILLIAM CHISHOLM, FIAR OF CROMLIX}, who is styled son and heir to his father and Margaret Cunningham when he had a Bond in 1668.

\textsuperscript{65} NRS PA2/23/f.417v.
\textsuperscript{66} GD220/1/C/1/5/6.
\textsuperscript{67} RH1/2/833.
\textsuperscript{68} RS50/10/f.392.
\textsuperscript{69} Lamont’s Diary. See also: OPR – Edinburgh.
\textsuperscript{70} Lamont’s Diary.